Item 3.01 Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On May 10, 2006, Newpark Resources, Inc. notified the New York Stock Exchange that, given the current status of the internal investigation reported by Newpark in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 17, 2006, Newpark will not be able to timely file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2006, which we refer to in this report as the Form 10-Q. Further, given the current status of the internal investigation, Newpark notified the NYSE that it has not made any determination as to whether its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005 will require a restatement as a result of the ongoing internal investigation. As a result, Newpark will not satisfy the requirements of Section 203.01 of the NYSE Listed Company Manual because it will not be able to distribute its annual report to shareholders within 120 days following Newpark's fiscal year-end, as required by that rule.

Newpark has requested an extension of time for distributing its annual report to shareholders pending completion of the internal investigation through the 15th day following the filing of the Form 10-Q. As indicated in its Notification of Late Filing on Form 12b-25 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on May 10, 2006, Newpark cannot predict with certainty when the investigation will be complete or when it will be able to file its Form 10-Q and any restatement of prior historical financial statements, if deemed necessary. However, Newpark is hopeful that it will be able to make the necessary filings within 60 days of the date of the Notification of Late Filing.

On May 16, 2006, the NYSE notified Newpark that the procedures outlined in Section 802.01E of the NYSE Listed Company Manual will apply if Newpark subsequently fails to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2006, which we refer to in this report as the 2006 Form 10-K. Section 802.01E provides, among other things, that the NYSE will monitor a company that has failed to timely file its Annual Report on Form 10-K and the filing status of that report. If the company fails to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K within six months of the filing due date, the NYSE, in its sole discretion, either may grant the company up to an additional six months to file that report or may commence suspension and delisting procedures against the company. Newpark expects that it will be able to file the 2006 Form 10-K in a timely manner.
